Chief Alan Weatherford today announced that:

Case #: 10-013893

On May 24, 2010, the Gulfport Police Department arrested 23 year old Brandon Terrell Robinson of Gulfport and charged him with burglary of a residence.

On April 21, 2010, officers from the Gulfport Police Department responded to Vixen Loop for a report of burglary of a residence. Through further investigation it was found that Robinson was in possession of the stolen property.

Upon advising Justice Court Judge Gene Dedeaux of the underlying facts and circumstances he issued a warrant for Robinson's arrest with a bond of $50,000.00. Robinson was also found to be on early release supervision with the Mississippi Department of Corrections.

On May 24, 2010, Robinson reported to his probation officer and was taken into custody without incident. Upon the completion of booking and processing Robinson was transported to the Harrison County Adult Detention Facility in lieu of bond.
